

Step 3. Choose the power generation (TWh/a):

The user chooses here the amount of electricity that can be generated from hydro-power stations annually. This value is not fully met, but provides an indication of the range of electricity that can be produced. As a reference the electricity consumption in Austria in the year 2014 is around 10 TWh.