

Step 4. Choose the environmental protection level:

A “low” environmental protection level indicates that the wind parks cannot be installed within a buffer area of 500m around all protected areas (e.g., national parks, natural reserve).

A “high” environmental protection level indicates that the wind parks cannot be installed within a buffer area of 2km around all protected areas and inhabited areas.